

PRESS RELEASE

January 12, 2007

Dine with development in mind

Kick off 2007 by keeping up to date on economic developments for the Town of Gananoque and the Township of Leeds and the Thousand Islands.

The Mayor's Breakfast, held on Jan. 23, 2007, promises an informative and interesting morning as guest speakers provide insight on progress made on the economic front in 2006 and look ahead with objectives for the region in 2007.

The breakfast is sponsored by the OLG. The food and fun kicks off at 8:45 a.m. at the Gananoque Inn at 550 Stone St. S. in Gananoque.

Guest speakers include Gananoque Mayor Jim Garrah, Township of Leeds and the Thousand Islands Mayor Frank Kinsella and Tom Russell from the TICDC. Economic development chairs will be giving reports and comments will also be provided by OLG representatives.

Don't miss out on the opportunity to get your audience up to speed on happenings in important rural parts of your coverage area!

Please let us know if you'll be covering the event: contact the 1000 Islands Gananoque Chamber of Commerce at 613-382-3250 or email marketing@1000islandschamber.com.

For more information:

Rosanne Van Vierzen

Marketing

1000 Islands Gananoque Chamber of Commerce

p: 613-382-3250

f: 613-382-1585

marketing@1000islandschamber.com

